

Current Release:

SAM RUCKER
POSITION
The Album

About

Sam Rucker has a unique musical recipe that is not just heard but felt. The Virginia native has developed a sound that is leaving a unique fingerprint on modern jazz.

Sam's music is powered by deep spiritual purpose with four studio albums under his belt and multiple placements on the Billboard Top 30 and other Smooth Jazz radio charts. The versatile producer/writer/saxophonist uses bright melodies, tight grooves, and uplifting, gospel-flavored vocals to deliver divinely inspired Smooth Jazz!

With his latest album, "In Position, The Album", Sam continues to delight listeners with his formula of head-nodding, inspirational grooves that so characterize him as a player and person. The first single from the album, "Unspeakable", earned him placements in the Billboard Top 30 for Smooth Jazz airplay as well as other Smooth Jazz radio charts.

"Sam Rucker has a genuine connection with the music and the audience. He plays with a passion that draws you in."
-Norman Connors

As a saxophonist, Sam has performed with many renowned artists, including Peter White, Euge Groove, Norman Connors, Cindy Bradley, Tom Browne, Ronnie Laws, Gerald Veasley, Phil Perry, Alyson Williams, and Ivan Neville. Playing with various groups, Sam has opened for Will Downing, Norman Brown, Eric Benet, Ben Tankard, Black Sheep, Candi Staton, Ron Kenoly, and more. He can also boast of three winning solo performances at the Apollo Theater in Harlem, New York. In 2022 Sam launched the "In Position Dinner Concert" series and performed seven consecutive sold-out shows that received rave reviews.

Sam's talents are not limited to the saxophone. He has produced and written CDs for several artists in Gospel, Hip-Hop, R&B, and Spoken Word genres. A licensed minister, Sam is also an anointed and skilled worship leader and loves performing in churches and Gospel events around the country.

"There's lots here to sink your teeth into as this is music that touches the heart as well as the ears."
- Midwest Record, Top 40 Charts.com

Feel the Flavor! The Flavor of Sam Rucker! www.samrucker.com